THE PENSACOLA CLASSICAL SCHOOL

OPINION OF EDUCATORS AS TO ITS WORK.

Prof. Walter Miller, professor of Greek in Tulane University, after visiting the classical school, wrote the following unsolicited opinion to a friend and colleague:

"The Pensacola Classical School is doing a splendid work for the cause of southern education. It is established upon broad principles, it cherishes the highest ideals of scholarship; it maintains a high standard of excellence; and by the best modern methods and equipment it secures thoroughness of training comparable with that afforded by the great fitting schools of the east. To my mind the Pensacola Classical School is one of the very best secondary schools of the south."

Dr. Venable, president of the University of North Carolina, writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the thoroughness of the preparation of the students who have come from your school to the university. We should be glad to have more of the same type."

Dr. Geo. Petrie, professor of Latin and History in the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, writes: "I consider the Pensacola Classical School one of the best fitting schools in this section of the south. I can confidently endorse the thoroughness of its work and the healthy manly atmosphere that pervades the institution."

THE JOURNAL'S REPORTS ATTRACT ATTENTION

ITS DETAILED HANDLING OF THE WILLIAMS TRIAL CHARACTERIZED AS THE BEST OF METROPOLITAN JOURNALISM—REPORTS ARE BOTH CONCISE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

The complete and comprehensive report of the Williams trial which The Journal has been giving daily has been a matter of comment all over West Florida.

The case is one which, on account of the atrocity of the crime, has attracted attention throughout all Florida and adjoining states and more interest probably centers in it than in any similar case in the criminal annals of Escambia county.

The Journal has studiously avoided all attempts at sensationalism—the case itself is sensational enough without any additional embellishment—and has confined its efforts to giving a clear, concise and at the same time comprehensive report of the evidence and the facts as they were presented in the testimony.

The Williams case affords the first occasion of the kind in Pensacola in many years in which the metropolitan journalism, as now represented by The Journal, could be fully demonstrated, and the result has been that every detail has been handled as carefully and completely as it would have been done in the large cities themselves.

That the public appreciates this kind of newspaper work is evident by the comment heard on all sides concerning it. The public long since learned where to look for a complete and reliable report of news matter in general and as a result The Journal is today looked upon as the best type and expression of metropolitan journalism which the city possesses.

DAMAGE DONE BY ELECTRICAL STORM

Greek Rendered Unconscious, and Two Buildings Badly Damaged.

The severe electrical storm, which accompanied the wind and rain shortly before the noon hour yesterday, did considerable damage, lightning striking in three different sections of the city. In one instance there were a number of narrow escapes.

The first case learned of was at the store of a Greek, just opposite the Louisville and Nashville shops. The Greek was standing near the doorway when the flash came and he was rendered unconscious, and remained so for some minutes. There were also a number of parties in the store, among them being Engineers Ben Barclay and George Hoffman. Both were near the Greek, and had a narrow escape from injury. Several small boys, who were on their way to the shops with dinner for some of the workmen had stopped at the point to get out of the rain, and one or two were slightly shocked.

Struck Elevator.
About the same time the Louisville and Nashville elevator was struck. The lightning struck the flag pole, tearing it to splinters and passed to the roof, where considerable damage was done. An examination was made of the damage soon afterwards, when it was ascertained that the roof could be repaired within a short time.

Bath House Damaged.
The bath house and swimming pool, formerly owned by S. F. Bogart, but now used by Frank Segari, was also damaged. The house, which was used exclusively by ladies, was badly injured, the north side being torn away. The lightning evidently passed up the wharf, as a number of piling were splintered. The lock on the door of the house was found later about one hundred feet up the wharf.

SMOKER WAS AN ENJOYABLE EVENT

Woodmen of the World Were in Attendance in Large Numbers.

The smoker given Wednesday night by Live Oak Camp No. 1, Woodmen of the World, was one of the most enjoyable events in the history of that order, and was attended by not only the members of that camp, but also those of Hickory Camp and quite a number of visiting Woodmen.

The event occurred in the hall of the order in the Blount building. At first the regular session was held in the lodge rooms, and afterwards all repaired to the banquet room, where delicious refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed.

There were present about sixty-five or seventy members, and many excellent addresses were heard during the course of the evening, most of them touching upon the order and the local camps.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third Street, Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years, and if I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." WANTS TO HEAR FROM COMRADES

INDIGENT CONFEDERATE SOLDIER MAKES APPEAL FOR INFORMATION.

The Journal has received the following appeal with a request to publish it:

Information Wanted.

Haralson, Ga., Aug. 16, 1905.

To The Confederate Veterans of Florida:

J. J. Washington, an old indigent Confederate soldier, wishes to find some of his comrades. He enlisted with Co. I, First Florida Regiment, at Opelika, Ala., 1861, and served 12 months. Thos. Means, Capt.; J. T. Miller, First Lieut.; Turner Turnbull, Second Lieut. He re-enlisted at the expiration of 12 months—he thinks with Co. B, First Florida Regiment, Finley Brigade, Bates Division, Army of Tennessee.

Any information as to Mr. Washington's last service and discharge will be thankfully received. I will return all postage. Address me at Haralson, Coweta county, Ga.

Fraternally,

W. L. TAYLOR.

A Card.

I wish to thank my friends and the public generally for the support accorded me, and say to them that I have sold my furniture business at 20 and 22 West Government street, to the Solomon Furniture Company. The new firm assumes all liabilities and accounts of the retiring firm, and I trust that my successors will enjoy that same liberal patronage which I have had during the many years that I have been in business in Pensacola.

O. M. PRYOR.

A Card.

We have purchased the furniture business of O. M. Pryor, including all accounts, etc., and we have already made preparations for the incorporation of the firm. It is our intention to revolutionize prices in the furniture line in Pensacola. Our Mr. Bernard Solomon, whom is well and favorably known in Pensacola, will manage the business and we solicit a share of your patronage.

E. C. Maxwell.

Attorney Maxwell made an eloquent and scholarly address to the jury, after first stating the law applicable to the case. He said it would be folly for the defense to deny the killing in the face of such overwhelming evidence of the fact, but he contended that the act itself was the act of a mad man. No one, said Mr. Maxwell, in his right mind and fully realizing what he was doing, would commit such a horrible deed when the only apparent motive therefor was to prevent prosecution upon a minor charge, and he said, even that motive had not been proven. Mr. Maxwell said that any man who committed such a deed should not be allowed to remain at large as such a man was a menace to the life of all good citizens. There was, however, a difference between a premeditated murder and a killing due to sudden passion or a distorted brain. It was for the jury to decide whether or not the crime was a deliberate one or one due to sudden mania or passion, such as he contended had been proven by witnesses for the defense.

Court Adjourns.
Both of the addresses were short and at their conclusion court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning when the arguments will be concluded on both sides, after which the case will be given to the jury for consideration.
